1ST CONGRESS OF EU CIVIL LAW NOTARIES

ROME 10 & 11 NOVEMBER 2005

Information on legislative decree No. 196/2003

According to Art. 13, of the Legislative decree No. 196/2003, and in relation to the processing of personal data, Triumph Congressi s.r.l informs you of the following:

1. Data processing purposes

Your personal data will be processed by Triumph Congressi s.r.l. for managing, accounting, statistical, commercial, marketing and/or promoting purposes. These activities will be carried out by processing, comparing, divulging or employing these very data.

2. Data processing modality

Data will be processed by appropriate devices ensuring their security and confidentiality. Data could be also processed by automatic machines employed to process, store and transmit this data.

3. Obligation to provide personal data

In order to be registered in the congresses we organize, you are obliged to give your data.

4. Data communication, diffusion and transfer

Your data can be given to the congress organisers and to the companies sponsoring the event as well as to other companies, authorities, consortia or associations that could divulge these data to their members, users and other related people within the limits of their institutional purposes. The only objective is to inform the person concerned about the existence of similar initiatives or to supply him with other information that could be deemed interesting.

Furthermore, the above-mentioned data can be given/divulged to companies, authorities, consortia and associations working in Italy or in the EU countries having the same objectives as stated here above.

5. Rights of interested parties

You have the right to know, by consulting the register specified in Art. 154 sub-section 1 letter I) of the legislative decree No. 196/2003, the existence of data processing; you can partially or entirely oppose, for legitimate reasons, the processing of your data, even if these data are relevant to the objective of data collection. Furthermore, you can prevent this data from being used for commercial purposes, market surveys, advertisement for direct selling or interactive commercials.

You can exercise your rights as per Art. 7 of the legislative decree No.196/2003, the complete text of which is given in the enclosure.

6. The owner of data processing

The owner of data processing is Triumph Congressi s.r.l Via Lucilio, 60 - 00136 Rome, Italy. The list of the people responsible for the processing itself is kept updated, and you can easily consult it by sending a written communication to the above address.

Data will be held into the Triumph Congressi s.r.l building, as long as the law prescribes.

1ST CONGRESS OF EU CIVIL LAW NOTARIES

ROME 10 & 11 NOVEMBER 2005

Article 7 of the legislative decree No. 196/2003 – right of access to personal data and other rights

1. The person concerned has the right to obtain confirmation of the existence of personal data and information regarding him/her – even though not recorded yet – and its disclosure under an intelligible form.

2. The person concerned is entitled to be informed of:

- a) the origin of personal data and information;
- b) data processing purposes and ways;
- c) the procedure followed in the event of data processing being carried out with electronic tools;
- d) the details to identify the owner, the persons in charge and the representative appointed under Article 5, Paragraph 2;
- e) the people or groups of people whom personal data and information can be disclosed to or who may come to know them in their capacity as representative appointed in the State territory or persons in charge.

3. The person concerned has the right to obtain:

- a) update, correction or – where interested in this process – supplementation of data;
- b) cancellation, turning into anonymous data or the block of data processed by infringing the law, including data and information which need not be kept in relation to the purposes for which data and information were collected or subsequently processed;
- c) a certificate stating that the operations under sub-paragraphs a) and b) - including their content – have been notified to those whom data and information were provided or disclosed to, except the case when this proves to be impossible or entails the use of such means which are overtly not proportionate to the right which is protected.

4. The person concerned has to right to wholly or partially refuse:

- a) processing of personal data and information regarding him/her for legitimate reasons, even though they are relevant to the aim of collection;
- b) processing of personal data regarding him/her for the purposes of sending advertising material, direct sale or performance of market studies or commercial communications.
